PER HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE B.S.RAIKOTE, VICE CHAIRMAN :

The learned counsel appearing for respondents No. 1 to 5 along with Mr.S.S.Vyas, Advocate, has submitted this application stating that on 17.5.2000, he was present and he argued the case, the judgment was reserved, and the same was pronounced on 19.5.2000. But, from the reading of the judgment, he found that his name was not incorporated in the cause title, as counsel appearing for the respondents No. 1 to 5.

2. Though, from the proceedings, we do not find the noting of his name along with Mr.S.S.Vyas, as a counsel appearing for respondent No. 1 to 5 but, we do not find any reason to dis-believe this statement that he (i.e.Shri A.K.Rajvanshi), was present and argued the case on 17.5.2000. Shri K.K.Dave, the Court Officer also states us that Shri A.K.Rajvanshi was present on 17.5.2000 and argued the case. From these facts, it is clear that it is only due to in-advertance, his name has been omitted to be noted in the proceeding-sheet of the day. In this view of the matter, we think it appropriate, to allow the application and direct the office to note the name of Mr.A.K.Rajvanshi, in the cause title of the judgment by correcting the same to that extent and a fresh certified copy of it, may be issued to him.

3. The Application dated 30.5.2000 submitted by Mr.A.K.Rajvanshi, in respect of making correction in the cause title of the judgment, is allowed.
