3. Applicant was appointed as casual labourer in the office of 24, Field Ammunition Depot (FAD), C/o. 56 APO. Applicant was engaged as casual labourer for 89 days in December, 1993. On completion of 89 days of service, the applicant was disengaged from service. It is urged on behalf of the applicant that fresh persons are being inducted as casual labourer ignoring the claim of the applicant. The learned counsel for the respondents has urged that the appointment was given to the applicant for a period of 89 days only and the nature of vacancies was of casual labourers. The learned counsel for the applicant states that in view of the facts of this case, if there are vacancies of casual labourers in 24 Field Ammunition Depot, applicant's case for re-engagement may be considered as per rules.

4. In the result, we direct the respondents to consider the case of the applicant for re-engagement as casual labourer in terms of the rules as and when need arises.

5. Application stands disposed of accordingly at the stage of admission with no order as to costs.
