Mr. Y.K. Sharma, counsel for applicant.
Mr. Manoj Bhandari, counsel for the respondents.

In this case, the applicant had pleaded that he could not appear in the selection test for the post of Sectional Engineer (Signal) grade Rs. 6500-10500 (RP) due to illness. He had prayed in the OA that the respondents be directed to hold a supplementary selection test for the applicant. It was noted that the respondents had conducted a selection test earlier, therefore, it was ordered that the result of the said test was not to be declared by the respondents.

During the pendency of the O.A., the respondents called the applicant for supplementary test for the said post vide Annex.R/2. The applicant appeared in the said selection test which was conducted on 22.1.2000. Learned counsel for the respondents has submitted that the applicant could not succeed in the said selection test. The learned counsel for the applicant also admits the same.

In view of this, the O.A. in our opinion, has become infructuous. Consequently, the O.A. is dismissed as infructuous. The stay order granted on 24.11.99 is hereby vacated.
