Sh. Vijay Mehta, Counsel to applicant
Sh. Vineesh Mathur, Counsel to respondents

Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

In this case, the applicant has prayed for setting aside the verbal ~~direction~~ termination order dated 1.2.99 passed by the respondent No.2. He has also claimed the relief of reinstatement and for wages from July 1998 to Jan.'99.

The learned counsel for the applicant has argued that respondents have not made the payment to the applicant for the period as mentioned above, although he was a temporary status holder and was verbally terminated.
Therefore, he deserves to be reinstated with consequential benefits and orders relating to payment of back wages.

On the other hand, the learned counsel for the respondents has submitted that the services of the applicant was never termina-ted but the applicant himself stopped coming to work from 1.2.99 and consequently he is not entitled to any consequential benefits. However, this is the reply of the respondents that they are prepared to make the payment of wages to the applicant for the period in question, and they are also prepared to take him on duty provided he reports.

In view of the above submissions, controversy is limited only to the extent of the wages relating to the period from 1.2.99 till he is ~~taken on duty~~ because other two disputes ^{have} are almost come to an end because of the admission of the respondents. Looking to the controversy involved, we pass the following order :

- i) The applicant should report on duty on 25th April, 2000 with a written application and the respondents shall ~~take~~ take him on duty after receiving the written report relating to joining the duties with a receipt to the applicant.
- ii) The respondents shall make payment of wages to the applicant for the period from July 98 to Jan. 99 for the days he spent on duty as per the rules.
- iii) The applicant should represent to the higher authorities in respect of the period starting from 1.2.99 till he ^{is} ~~should be~~ taken on duty, in respect of claim of wages or treating this period as on duty, and such representation of the applicant shall be disposed of by the respondents by a reasoned speaking order within a period of three months from the date of its receipt.

The Original Application is disposed of accordingly. However, there is no orders as to cost.
