The applicant, who has been punished on account of conviction on a criminal charge u/s 302 IPC after conducting a fruitless inquiry, has challenged the order of punishment.

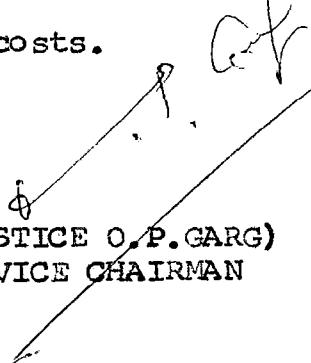

2. The learned counsel for the respondents pointed out that the present OA is premature as the applicant has not exhausted all the departmental remedies before approaching this Tribunal. The learned counsel for the applicant admits that the departmental appeal dated 4.5.99 (Ann.A/12) preferred by the applicant is still pending.

3. Since the applicant has not exhausted all the departmental remedies, this OA cannot be maintained. We, therefore, dispose of this OA with the direction that the appellate authority shall decide the pending appeal of the applicant, if any, within a period of two months to be reckoned from today by a reasoned and speaking order. No order as to costs.
