ORDER

(Per Hon'ble Mr. Justice O.P.Garg)

The three applicants in these Original Applications are the widows of the casual workers, who were ultimately granted temporary status. After the death of their husbands, they applied for appointment on compassionate grounds. The Departmental authorities informed the applicants that as and when certain posts on which the female persons could be appointed, their cases for appointment shall be considered. A letter was also sent by the department that in case, the applicants indicate preference for appointment of their sons, if any, their cases may be considered on compassionate grounds. The present applicants sponsored the case of their sons, who have admittedly been appointed and are working.

2. Shri B. Khan, learned counsel for the applicants pointed out that the applicants are also entitled to work as they were engaged as Water Women in summer season and have been empanelled for appointment. Be that as it may, the department has already given appointment on compassionate grounds to each one of the sons of the applicants.

3. The applicants can not now seek appointment on compassionate ground. The respondent-department is <sup>not</sup> obliged to provide job to each one of the dependants of the deceased employee. The object of appointment on compassionate ground is to provide succour to the family which has lost the bread-winner and to tide over the financial crises. Since the respondent-department has provided job to one of the dependants in each of the family of the deceased, the claim of the applicants is not only ridiculous but absurd.

4. All the three O.As aforesaid, are accordingly dismissed with no order as to costs.
