a further request that the same may be quashed and set aside and the applicant may be allowed to continue as Junior Progressive Man in the Northern Railway (Workshop), Bikaner in the pay scale of Rs. 4000-6000.

2. The brief facts of the case are that both the applicants are holding the post of Technician Grade II since 1996 and have been satisfactorily discharging their duties. The applications were invited for filling up three posts of Junior Progressive Man, which is an ex-cadre posts in the pay scale of Rs. 4000-6000. There are certain requirements as indicated in the notification. But the applicants were denied the due consideration on the ground that they did not belong to the concerned shop/trade.

3. While there is hardly any dispute regarding the factual aspect of the matter. During the pendency of this case certain subsequent developments have been taken place in as much as the applicant No. 2 has already been promoted as Technician-I. Thus, his claim does not survive.

4. As regards the claim of the applicant No. 1, there are certain subsequent development which have taken place and now a decision has been taken vide communication dated 11.03.2004 by which the Technicians Grade-II belonging to the other trades i.e. allied trade scale of Rs. 4000-6000 holding the post of Technician Grade-II and fulfilling the other eligibility conditions for the post of JPM may also be considered in case the sufficient employees from the basic trade have not given their options. record. It has been submitted on behalf of the applicants that the applicant would be more than satisfied if his candidature is considered in pursuance with the said decision. His contention is that as per the said letter he would fall within the consideration zone and if his case is considered then he will be able to get the relief claimed in this Original Application.

5. The learned counsel for the respondents submits that the respondents are not proceeding further in the matter since the very case of the applicant filed before this Bench of the Tribunal is pending and subjudice. However, they would be more than willing to adhere to any direction which may consider to be just, proper and fit in the facts and circumstances of this case.

6. In view of what has been said and discussed above, the respondents are directed to consider the case of the applicant No. 1 for deputing him on the post of Junior Progressive Man in accordance with the aforesaid letter dated 11.03.2004 if he is otherwise found suitable for the same. This exercise shall be done within a period of two months from the date of communication of this order. No order as to costs.
