respondents No. 2 and 3 had filed the reply earlier and learned counsel for respondents No. 1 and 2 have filed the reply today itself. A copy of the same has already been handed over to the other side. It has been submitted by the learned counsel for the respondents that the period of suspension has now been ordered to be treated as spent on duty and it has been directed that if the payment has not been made, the same shall be arranged to be paid vide letter dated 02.03.2005, a copy of which is being placed on records. Thus, the respondents have given a little more than what the applicant has prayed for. In this view of the matter, the applicant should also be more than happy with the relief granted to him. The O.A. stands disposed of since all the reliefs have been granted to him. The Original Application has rendered infructuous and stands disposed of accordingly. No costs. However, in case the due amount of arrears have not been disbursed, so far, the same be disbursed immediately, in any case, not later than two months from today.
