ORDER

Per Mr. Kuldip Singh, Vice Chairman.

Even at the second call none was present on behalf of the applicant. Hence I have perused the application and heard the learned counsel for the respondents.

2. The applicant assailed the order dated 07.04.2005 (Annex.A/1) vide which his request for compassionate appointment has been turned down. The applicant has a grievance that he deserves to be appointed on compassionate grounds since his father while working on the post of Postal Overseer under the respondents died in harness on 04.03.2003. His father was a only bread winner of the family. The deceased left behind his wife (mother of the applicant), the applicant and his younger brother and the entire family was left behind in destitute with no other source of income to make both ends to meet. Therefore, he made an application for appointment on compassionate grounds but the same has been turned down by the impugned order dated 07.04.2005.

3. In the grounds challenging the same, the applicant has stated that the order rejecting his application for compassionate appointment is arbitrary and unreasonable and the same has been passed in flagrant violation of Article 14 of the Constitution of India. It is also stated that the family is in indigent circumstances and no independent source of income is there and they do not have any residential premises of their own to live. It is further stated that the rejection of his request for appointment on compassionate grounds is against the observations made by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in various cases.

4. The respondents are contesting the O.A. by filing a detailed reply. They have admitted that the applicant's father expired on 04.03.2003, while working on the post of Postal Overseer under the respondents. It is further submitted that after the death of Shri Manu Prakash Soni, all the terminal benefits were paid to his family and the family of the deceased government servant is getting every month a sum of Rs. 2025/- + dearness relief as applicable from time to time. Besides, a sum of Rs. 3,32,354/- was paid as terminal benefits. It is averred that the family of the deceased government servant consists of his widow and his two sons i.e, the applicant and his younger brother, and both of them are major. Hence there is no liability of marriage of daughter and education of minor children. As both the sons are major and they can look after the family very well by doing some job and meet out the liabilities. It is further submitted that the case of the applicant was put up before the Circle Relaxation Committee (CRC for short). The CRC considered all the cases and decided to give appointment only to more deserving cases and on comparative merit the applicant's case was rejected. A Rejoinder has been filed by the applicant reiterating the facts and grounds mentioned in the O.A.

5. I have heard the learned counsel for the respondents and perused the pleadings of the applicant very carefully. I have also gone through the comparative chart produced by the learned counsel for the respondents and the same is taken on record. On a close analysis I find there were more deserving candidates than the applicant and the case of the applicant was rightly rejected by the respondents. The Apex Court, has recently in the case of Union Bank of India and ors. vs. M.T. Latheesh [ 2006 (8) Supreme 524 ] in para 36 has observed as under:

".... It is settled law that the principles regarding compassionate appointment that compassionate appointment being an exception to the general rule the appointment has to be exercised only in warranting situations and circumstances existing in granting appointment and guiding factors should be financial condition of the family. ...."

As the cases of other candidates were more deserving, the respondents rightly rejected the request of the applicant for appointment on compassionate ground.

6. The applicant has also pleaded that the terminal benefits should not be considered for the purpose of assessing indigent for grant of appointment on compassionate ground. But after the judgement of the Apex Court in General Manager (D&PB) & Ors vs. Kunti Tiwari & Anr. [(2004) 7 SCC 271], the respondents can take into consideration the terminal benefits also. It is noticed from the chart produced by the learned counsel for the respondents, that the applicant's family has got more amount as terminal benefits and the applicant's mother is getting more money as family pension than others whose candidature were considered by the Circle Relaxation Committee for appointment on compassionate grounds.

7. For the foregoing reasons, the O.A is liable to be dismissed and accordingly it is dismissed. No order as to costs.
