ORDER
(Per Dr. K.B. Suresh, Judicial Member)

The applicant claimed that he has higher qualification than the selected candidates for the post of Fireman; as he has undergone a training course of fire safety engineering which he had acquired from a recognized institute. The respondents would point out that in their wisdom; they have not required this additional qualification certificate possessed by the applicant as a part of requirement and have not in fact advertised for said qualification, in the advertisement the essential qualification for the post was 10th standard and nor had they allowed such requirement to be a qualificatory bench mark for the post of Firemen. The applicant would also concede that it is a fact that the said qualification did not figure in the advertisement as requirement, and therefore, there is no ground for the applicant to contend that this additional qualification must form as part of requisite qualification for selection, therefore, O.A. fails and is dismissed with no order as to costs.
