ORDER (ORAL)
(Per Dr. K.B. Suresh, Judicial Member)

Heard the counsel representing the parties.

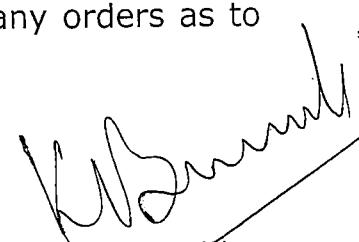

2- When the matter was taken-up for hearing, the learned counsel for the applicant graciously submitted that the applicant had secured another engagement and for the last one year, he has not communicated anything to him inspite of his best efforts, and he, therefore, submitted that he seeks time to take further instructions from him. While saying so, he would point-out that he believes that the applicant has a good case on merits and, therefore, for the sake of his client, if he wanted to pursue it, he should have pursued it. But, we thought that a mere academic exercise is not required in the matter. ~~But~~ we reserve the ~~the~~ applicant's right to file a review if ~~he~~ ^{is} so inclined within the next ~~the~~ six months. However, for the time being, there is nothing in this ^{would} matter to be pursued, as no benefit ~~befall~~ anybody if the matter ~~the~~ is heard on merits at this juncture.
