ORDER

(Per Hon'ble Dr. K.B. Suresh, Judicial Member)

In our anxiety to secure justice, we directed the respondents to produce the relevant records relating to the examination and selection. From the record of the examination and selection, we found that the selected persons have secured more marks in the written examination as well as the record of the service than that of the applicant. It appears from the record that the selected persons have been received awards during the last three years of service, and the record of service are also significantly higher than the applicant. Having found that there is no lacunae in the selection process, we do not think that there is force in the contention of the applicant that annexure A/1 impugned order dated 18/19.10.2010 be quashed and set aside. After the applicant had appeared in the examination and then only because of the result is not favourable to him, he cannot turn around and subsequently contend that the process of the selection was unfair, it is not sustainable in the eyes of law as per the judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Madan Lal and Others vs. State of J & K and others reported in 1995 (3) SCC 486 = 1995 SCC (L&S) 712. The merit is the criteria for selection and having found that the applicant cannot in any way challenge the order of the selection as it appears to have been done transparently and for valid reason, we are inclined to refuse the prayer of the applicant and reject the O.A. as being without merit. Therefore, the Original Application is dismissed at the stage of admission itself. No order as to costs.
