ORDER (ORAL)
(Per Dr. K.B. Suresh, Judicial Member)

Heard.

2- The Hon'ble Apex Court in Dev Dutt ~~Sharma~~ 's case laid has down that unfavourable entries made in the ACRs of a Government servant must be communicated to the concerned person, so as to elicit from him a response, and possible change of the scenario. This does not appear to have been done in the instant case. Therefore, the matter is remitted back to the respondent-department to inform the applicant in the appropriate time frame when he is said to have received average grading. The details of the same be communicated within one month from today. Within the next one month ~~and~~ the applicant shall then submit a representation if he so chooses against the grading granted to him. After receiving the representation, the matter shall be considered by the respondents within one month next, and if it is favourable to the applicant, then a review DPC shall be held within the next one month, and if he passes <sup>muster</sup> in the review DPC successfully, then his promotion shall be ante dated vis-à-vis the next junior. If the applicant is further aggrieved, he is at liberty to seek further reliefs.

3- The O.A. is disposed of as above. No order as to costs.
