respondents would submit that the applicant has already been selected for contractual appointment again and the orders will be issued within two days next, and therefore, the O.A. itself is infructuous. We record the said statement of Shri Kuldeep Mathur, the learned counsel for the respondents. However, the respondents are directed to consider whether in the interregnum, appointment of the applicant could not have been terminated since her termination tenure was not stood exhausted, and shall pass an appropriate order in accordance with the extant rules. With the above observations and directions, the Original Application is disposed of. No order as to costs.
