[PER DR. K.B.SURESH,JUDICIAL MEMBER]

Heard.

2. After hearing the learned counsel in detail, and examining the records of the case, we find that the applicant had filed a representation with the competent authority which is still pending with them. It would appear that he had not completed three years' mandatory peaceful tenure at the station, and therefore, in the interest of justice, we deem it fit and necessary to direct the competent authority to dispose of the

which he claims to have already filed, representation, if any, as early as possible, and till such disposal
