[By Mr. M.S.Godara, Advocate]

ORDER (ORAL)

Heard the learned counsel for the respondents as well as the applicant.

2. In view of the counter affidavit submitted by the respondents, it appears that the application for compassionate appointment is still under active consideration. Hence, the cause of action does not arise sufficiently and the application is premature. It is disposed of with a directive that the case of the applicant be considered against the next vacancy and it should be disposed of within two months of the date when the vacancy so arises.

3. No order as to costs.
