Date of Order : 29/01/2016

Mr. S.P.Sharma, counsel for the applicant
Mr. K.S.Yadav, counsel for respondent Nos. 1 to 3

There was a connected case filed by Shri Bhalla Ram and others, as OA No.170/2014 in which we had passed an order of conditional appointment to the selected candidate and in which originally the selection process was stayed thereafter we modified that order and allowed a conditional appointment be made. But today, Shri Vijay Mehta, learned counsel for Shri Bhalla Ram sought permission to withdraw the OA and therefore, the selection has become final. Therefore, all these OAs are allowed and appointment is approved. The OA is allowed as above. No costs.

SYNOPSIS AND DATES OF EVENTS

Jan, 2014

The respondents issued an advertisement and invited applications to fill up 50 vacant post of Majdoor through open selection at 224 Advance Base Depot. Jodhpur.

10.12.2014

The applicant, having suitability to the post, submitted application and participated the selection process, in which he was declared qualified in all the stages of selection and accordingly he deposited original documents with respondent no. 3 and thereafter he was issued with provisional selection letter.

08.04.2015

Thereafter, the respondent also carried out verification of the applicant and completed the recruitment process. But even then for long time, the applicant was not issued with appointment order and joining instructions. In the similar issue, some such selected candidates approached to this Hon'ble Tribunal and filed original application no. 290/396/2014, wherein while passing an interim order, the respondents have been directed by this Hon'ble Tribunal to consider case for issue of appointment order conditionally, subject to outcome of O.A. pending before this Hon'ble Tribunal, filed by failed candidates. Hence the same relief may kindly be granted to the applicant, as the respondents are not issuing appointment order to the applicant, whereas others have been now given joining pursuance to interim order. Hence this original application.

DETAILS OF THE APPLICATION

Particulars of Order against which, application is made :

A) Order under challenge:-

In this O.A. there is no any order under challenge. However the applicant prays for seeking directions for implementation of provisional 224 ABOD, as such it is a continuing cause, denial of which creates cause of action.

B) Subject Matter in Brief:- The respondent no. 2 and 3 issued an advertisement published in rojgar samachar in January 2014, to fill up vacant post of Majdoor for which selection process was conducted, in which applicant participated and he was declared qualified and thereafter applicant was issued provisional selection letter dated 10.12.2014, but till date the applicant has not been given joining on the said post, whereas verification of the applicant has been already completed and he has submitted original documents with the respondent no. 3. In identical original application no. 290/396/2014 filed by Om Prakash & Ors, and O.A. No. 290/00125/2015 Praveen Kumar Yadav Vs. Union of India, having similar controversy, this Hon'ble Tribunal has been pleased to grant interim relief. The case of the applicant is similar to said original application in the matter of appointment.

C) Subject Prayer:- The by an appropriate writ, order or directions, the respondents may kindly be directed to consider the case of applicant and accordingly issue appointment order to conclude the selection process to the post of Majdoor in Group-D.

2. Jurisdiction of the Tribunal:

The applicants declare that the subject matter for which this application is made is within the jurisdiction of this Hon'ble Tribunal.

3. Limitation :

The applicants further declare that this original application is within the limitation prescribed in Section 21 of the Central Administrative Tribunal Act, 1985, for the purpose grant of benefit of continuing cause to raise the same before this Hon'ble Tribunal. Thus there is no delay in approaching to the Hon'ble Tribunal for seeking an appropriate relief.

4. Brief Facts of the case :

Facts of the case, in the brief are as under:-

- 4.1 That the applicant is a citizen of India and he belongs to Bharatpur district in Rajasthan.
- 4.2 That, the respondent no. 2 and 3 issued an advertisement to fill up the vacant post of Majdoor, through open selection process, for which an advertisement was issued in Rojgar Samachar dated 11-17 January 2014, through which applications were invited, copy whereof is submitted and marked as Annexure-A/1.
- 4.3 That, it is further respectfully submitted that, the applicant is secondary passed and he belongs to OBC category and he is bonafide resident of Bharatpur. Thus the applicant is possessing requisite qualification necessary for the post advertised. The copy of secondary school certificate, copy of caste certificate and copy of bonafide certificate, shall be filed on record, if need so arises, or if so advised by this Hon'ble Tribunal.
- 4.4 That, the applicant on having come to know about said advertisement, submitted his candidature and participated in the selection process and qualified the same. The respondents conducted the selection process in most transparent and fair manner, in which applicant and many others were declared qualified for the post advertised and thereafter all such selected candidates were asked to submit their original documents for verification which were accordingly submitted by the applicant to

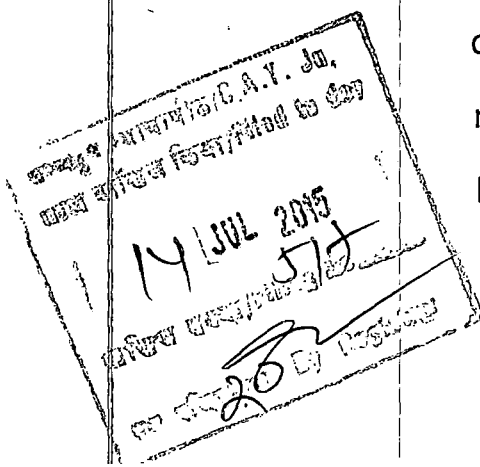

- 4.5 That, thereafter the respondents issued provisional selection letter to the applicant under OBC category for the post of Majdoor letter dated 10.12.2014, as the applicant found place in merit list, against the post advertised, copy whereof is marked as Annexure-A/2.
- 4.6 That, it is significant to submit here that the said selection process comprised various stages, like written examination, medical examination, practical test, physical test and then interview and verification of documents and verification of antecedent of selected candidates. The applicant has been found suitable in the aforesaid all the stages, but even then for long time, he has not been issued with appointment order and joining letter to the post, to which he is selected.
- 4.7 That, it is further submitted that, when the applicant did not receive appointment order from the respondents for long time, then he made query from the office of respondent no. 3 and came to know that, some failed candidates have approached to this Hon'ble Tribunal and challenged the selection process, vide O.A. No. 290/00170/2014 titled Bhalla Ram Vs. Union of India & Ors, due to which appointment orders are not being issued.
- 4.8 That, it is also relevant to submit here that, on similar lines, recruitment were conducted in the past in 2013, by the respondents, wherein all selected candidates have been given joining and in similar recruitment process conducted in other parts of Rajasthan by other army units also has been completed and selected candidates have been given joining. Thereafter the respondents further proceeded to fill more vacant post of Majdoor for want of original documents, the applicant could not participate to this fresh selection post. Therefore the applicant also deserves to be given joining on the post to which he is selected.

- 4.9 That, it is also pertinent to submit here that, in on identical issue, some 10 such selected candidates of the same selection process in question, approached to this Hon'ble Tribunal and filed original application vide O.A. No. 290/00396/2014 titled Om Prakash & Ors. Vs. Union of India & Ors, and thereafter many more such candidates also filed similar O.A. for, seeking similar relief, wherein upon hearing the prayer of applicants for grant of interim directions, this Hon'ble Tribunal has been pleased to grant interim relief on 02.02.2015, wherein respondents have been given directions to give appointment to such selected candidates conditionally, subject to outcome of O.A. No. 290/00170/2014 filed by failed candidates. Similar direction has been issued in another O.A. No. 290/00125/2015 titled Praveen Kumar Yadav Vs. Union of India & Ors. Thereafter in pursuance to said directions, these almost all selected candidates have been given joining, except petitioner. But since the applicant did not have such interim orders from this Hon'ble Tribunal, as such he has been denied joining by saying that, he also has to seek interim directions from the Hon'ble Tribunal. Therefore the same interim relief also deserves to be passed in this original application filed by the applicant. The copy of interim order dated 02.02.2014 passed in O.A. No. 290/00396/2014 and interim order dated 08.04.2015 passed in O.A. No. 290/00125/2015 are submitted herewith and marked as Annexure-A/3 & A/4, respectively.

Thus, the applicant, in the aforesaid given facts and circumstances, finds himself highly aggrieved, as his rights are being prejudiced, by not offering him appointment orders. Hence the applicants, prefers this original application, before this Hon'ble Tribunal, on the following grounds.

5. Grounds of application:

- (A) That the action of the respondents for not giving appointment order and not issuing him joining letter, after completion of selection process is per-se illegal in the eye of law, hence the same deserves to be declared unsustainable, by this Hon'ble Tribunal, in eye of law.
- (B) That, it is very significant to submit here the, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Ramesh Chandra Shah & Ors, Vs. Anil Joshi & Ors, reported in AIR 2013 SC 1613, has held that, after facing selection process, failed candidates cannot question the selection process. Therefore, it is not in the mouth of the failed candidates, to say the selection process was not correct. The failed candidates never raised question, during the selection process that, the selection process was not correct. Therefore at belated stage, they question the same and on this ground the respondents cannot be permitted to stall the selection process. Hence the action of the respondents, calls for interference of this Hon'ble Tribunal.
- (C) That it is further respectfully submitted that, recruitment process conducted by the respondent is just and proper and it was conducted in the most fair and transparent manner and no any kind of illegality has been pointed out by any authority in the said selection process till date. Therefore it is not proper on the part of on this ground also the action respondent no. 2 and 3, is unsustainable in the eye of law.

- (D) That, applicant belongs to poor back ground from SC rural area in Rajasthan and he has legitimate expectation to join the post, to which he has been selection, after he has been selected in accordance to law. Therefore, the applicant has a genuine cause to agitate the same before this Hon'ble Tribunal.
- (E) That the other submissions shall be made at the time of arguments.

6. Details of remedies exhausted:

The applicants declared that in the present case, the applicant has no any other remedy available for redressal of his grievances.

7. Particulars of pendency of any case;

The applicant has not filed this matter before any court of Tribunal previously nor the same is pending with any other authority.

8. Relief sought by the applicants:

- (i) That, by an appropriate order this original application may kindly be allowed and by an order or direction, the impugned action of respondents for not issuing appointment order to applicant to the post of Majdoor, to which he is selected, may kindly be declared illegal and arbitrary in the eye of law.
- (ii) That, by an appropriate order or direction, the respondents may kindly be directed to issue appointment order and joining instruction forthwith to applicant on the post of Majdoor (Group-D post) to which he is selected, against advertisement in question, with all consequential benefits.

9. Interim order, if any prayed for:

In view of above the humble applicant prays for issuance of interim relief and prays to direct the respondents to issue appointment order and provisionally allow joining of applicant on the post of Majdoor conditionally, subject to outcome of final decision in O.A. No. 290/00170/2014 filed by failed candidates, pending before this Hon'ble Tribunal.

10. The application has been filed through counsel of the applicants.

D.B. not formed. Issue notices 'Dasti'.

Heard on I.R. Counsel for the applicant submits a copy of the interim order dated 02.02.2015 in OA No. 396/2014 with MA No. 12/2015 in which after considering the matter, the respondents were directed to consider issue of conditional appointment letter to the applicants and that the appointment of the applicants shall be subjected to the outcome of OA No. 290/00170/2014 (Balla Ram & Ors v. UOI & Ors.)

Counsel for the applicant contended that Shri Parveen Kumar Yadav (applicant) is also one of the selected candidate for the post of Mazdoor and this may be seen from Annex. A/2 dated 18.07.2014 and his case is similar/identical with the 10 applicants in OA No. 396/2014 and accordingly prays that the same IR may be given as has been given to the applicants in OA No. 396/2014.

Considered the position and in view of the IR given in OA No. 396/2014 and this being a similar/identical matter, the respondents are directed to consider issue of conditional appointment letter to the applicant and the appointment of the applicant shall be subject to the outcome of OA No. 290/00170/2014 (Balla Ram & Ors v. UOI & Ors.)

Ms K. Parveen, Sr.C.G.S.C. and counsel representing the respondents in similar matters, is directed to receive notices on behalf of respondents and convey the position on next date of hearing, regarding consideration of issue of conditional appointment to the applicant. The respondents may file reply/short reply before next date of hearing.

Put up the matter on 20/04/2015.

Date of Order : 02/02/2015

Mr S.P. Sharma present for applicant.
Ms K. Parveen present for respondents.

Mr S.P. Sharma puts in his appearance on behalf of applicants as Mr Aditya Singhi, counsel earlier engaged by the applicants is ill.

Heard on MA No. 290/00012/15 filed by the applicants for early hearing. As MA for early hearing has been filed on 15th January, 2015 and since then case has already been listed on 20.01.2015 before Registrar and before D.B. on dated 23.01.2015 and today. Accordingly, MA is disposed of being rendered infructuous.

Counsel for applicant submits that all the applicants have been selected by the respondent-department and their original documents have also been called by the respondent-department for verification which are still lying with them as appointments could not be issued due to interim order passed in OA No. 290/00170/14 filed by the failed candidates.

Counsel for respondents admits to this position, therefore, in view of the facts submitted by both the parties, the respondents are directed to consider issue of conditional appointment letter to the applicants that the appointment of the applicants shall be kept subject to the outcome of OA No. 290/00170/14 Balla Ram & Ors v. UOI & Ors. Counsel for respondents may inform the Tribunal of the position on next date i.e. 06/02/2015.
