1. This application has been filed by the applicant raising the grievance that there is^a/threat of termination of his service as E.D. Packer.

2. When admission hearing of the matter was taken up today it appears that the termination order was passed by the respondents already on 25.7.1997. We have been given to understand that the applicant has filed another O.A. bearing No. 872 of 1997, which is pending adjudication by the Tribunal raising the issue about termination of his service. In such a position, the instant application has become infructuous and, hence, it is dismissed at the stage of admission hearing itself without passing any order as to costs.
