UNION OF INDIA & ORS.

For the applicant : Mr. S. Singh, counsel

For the respondents : Mr. B.K. Chatterjee, counsel

Order On : 5.5.99

O R D E R

Heard ld. counsel for both the parties.

2. Ld. counsel Mr. S. Singh appearing on behalf of the applicant, submits that the applicant had appointed ^{Advocate} Mr. Kedarnath Yadav for conducting his case. But ^{when} the case was taken up for hearing, Mr. Yadav did not appear before this Tribunal. So, the case has been dismissed for default due to laches on the part of the advocate for the applicant. Thereafter, the applicant filed this M.A. for restoration of the O.A. So, the applicant is in no way responsible for dismissal of the matter.
3. Ld. counsel Mr. B.K. Chatterjee appearing on behalf of the respondents submits that the application is not maintainable in view of the fact that the original advocate has not filed an application for restoration of the O.A. and ld. counsel Mr. Singh was appointed subsequently after passing of the order of dismissal. So, the application is liable to be dismissed.
4. I have considered the submissions made by the ld. counsel for both the parties. I find that the applicant has no fault in this regard since he appointed ld. counsel Mr. Yadav to conduct his case and there is laches on the part of the advocate concerned who accepted the brief of the case from the applicant.

5. In view of the aforesaid circumstances, the original application bearing No.453/97 is hereby restored after setting aside the order dated 19.2.99. Accordingly the M.A. is disposed of and the O.A. 453/97 will come up for hearing on 11.6.99.
6. No order is passed as to costs.
