JUDGEMENT

Hon'ble Shri S.P. Mukerji, Vice Chairman

We have heard learned counsel for both the parties. and perused the documents. There is no order by which the applicant seems to have been affected regarding his posting at Trivandrum. The learned counsel also has not brought out any recent order to substantiate his apprehension that he is likely to be transferred out of Trivandrum. We see no <sup>force</sup> ~~merit~~ in the application. The application is dismissed.

Shri N.S.Aravindakshan
for petitioner (Review Applicant)
Shri Madhusoodhanan-for SCGSC.

In the Original Application the applicant <sup>has not challenged any order</sup> ~~xx~~ He approached <sup>It was premature.</sup> this Tribunal without challenging any of the orders before getting an order adversely affecting his interest. We have considered the matter at the admission stage itself and dismissed the case.

Now the applicant wants <sup>us</sup> to review the order and reopen the same <sup>by filing</sup> with this Review Application. We have heard the matter and are satisfied that there is nothing wrong in the order and no error apparent on the face of record warranting interference by this Tribunal exercising the jurisdiction by way of review. We make it clear that the dismissal of this R.A. will not stand in the way of the applicant approaching the Tribunal whenever he gets an order adversely affecting his interest.
