Licence. They contend that Technicians of the Telecom Department who are performing similar duties and having the same educational qualifications are given a higher scale of pay. They pray that they may also be given the same higher scale of pay. They have also a prayer that their promotional prospects be increased.

2. Their representation has been submitted to the first respondent, the Government of India, which is stated to be pending. Applicants have also submitted a representation to the 4th respondent, the Member Secretary, Vth Pay Commission. Under these circumstances, we direct the 1st respondent to examine the request made by the applicants expeditiously and make suitable recommendations to the Vth Pay Commission. We are confident that the Pay Commission would also consider A1 representation that has been made to the 4th respondent.

3. We dispose of this application as aforesaid. No costs.

Dated, the 31st of March, 1995.
