The application having been heard on 13.07.2010, the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

ORDER*HON'BLE Mr.JUSTICE K.THANKAPPAN, JUDICIAL MEMBER

The OA has been filed by the applicant challenging the transfer order. OA has been admitted and notice issued to the respondents. While admitting this OA, this Tribunal issued an interim order stating that the operation of transfer order made against the applicant shall be kept in abeyance for a period of six weeks. In pursuance to the notice received from this Tribunal, a reply has already been filed on behalf of the respondents in which it is stated that the relieving order was sent in absentia to the applicant because of the vacation of the Institution. However, the relieving order has been cancelled. Today, a memo has been filed by the counsel for applicant stating that the transfer order of the applicant has been cancelled and allowed her to continue in the Kendriya Vidyalaya No.1, Naval Base, Cochin with immediate effect.

2. We have considered the arguments of the counsel for applicant and also the stand taken in the reply statement. Hence we feel that the OA can be disposed of by recording the cancellation of the transfer order as evidenced from the order No.11046/PGT(Chem)/2010/KVSHQ(Estt-II) dated 05/06-07-2010. We feel that the continuation of the OA is not necessary, as the grievance of the applicant has already been met by the respondents. Hence OA stands disposed of recording the above submissions. There shall be no order as to costs.

Dated, the 13th July, 2010.
