Applicant complains of wrong fixation of pay.

While working as a Daftary (Ordinary Grade) he was promoted as Daftary (Selection Grade) on 1.1.1986. According to applicant, he who was receiving pay of Rs.950/- plus Special Pay of Rs.5/- should have been fitted at the stage of Rs.965/- on promotion. This was not done and he made a representation which was rejected by Annexure.B.

2. Learned Counsel for applicant would submit that Office Memorandum No.1/2/86-Est.(Pay.1) dated the 22nd May, 1989 of the Department of Personnel & Training fully supports his claim. This contention was not taken into account while passing Annexure.B and we do not think that we can test the order by reasons now furnished by the counsel, and not evident from Annexure.B.

3. We quash Annexure.B and permit applicant to raise his contentions in the form of a comprehensive representation before the competent authority, within three weeks of today. If a representation is so made, orders will be passed thereon by the competent authority within four months of the date of receipt of the representation. The order will disclose the reasons upon which it rests.

4. To this extent, we allow the application. Parties will suffer their costs.

Dated 28th July, 1994.
