O R D E R

HON'BLE MR. A.V. HARIDASAN, VICE CHAIRMAN

The applicants, three in number are provisional E.D.Agents working under the 4th respondent. Their grievance is that even though they have been working for the last three years, they have not been given the service benefits for which E.D.Agents are generally entitled to probably on the ground that they are not regular E.D.Agents and are being paid minimum of the TRCA. Therefore, they have filed this application for a declaration that they are entitled to for all service benefits including increments and bonus on par with the regular employees and direct the respondents to extend all service benefits including increments and bonus on par with regular hands.

2. When the application came up for hearing today. Shri K.R.Rajkumar took notice on behalf of the respondents. Counsel on either side agree that the application may be disposed of permitting the applicants to make a joint representation to the second respondent regarding their grievances projected in this application and directing the the second respondent that if such a representation is received, the same should be considered and appropriate orders given to the applicants within a reasonable time.

3. In the light of the submission of the learned counsel on either side, the application is disposed of permitting the applicants to make a joint representation to the second respondent in regard to their grievances which have been proejcted in this application, within two weeks from today and directing the second respondent that if such a representation is received, the same shall be considered in the light of the rules and instructions on the subject and to give the applicants an appropriate reply within a period of two months from the date of receipt of the representation. No costs.
