JUDGEMENT

MR. S.P. MUKERJI VICE CHAIRMAN

The applicant in this case has challenged his transfer from the post of Assistant Post Master, M.G. Road Post Office Kochi to the post of Sub Post Master, Elamakkara post office which is not a supervisory post. When the case was taken up for admission on the last occasion, the learned counsel for respondents fairly stated that a supervisory post of SPM, Njarakkal post office is lying vacant and the applicant if he so chooses ~~he~~ can be posted to that post.

2. Learned counsel for applicant today stated that the applicant is prepared to be posted as SPM, Njarakkal but that should not be taken as a posting on request.
3. Learned counsel for respondents accepts this position.
4. Accordingly, we admit the application and dispose it of with the direction that the applicant shall be transferred to the supervisory post of SPM at Njarakkal post office instead of being posted as SPM Elamakkara and his posting to Njarakkal shall not be taken as a posting at his request.

5. There will be no order as to costs.
