(SHRI S.P.MUKERJI, VICE CHAIRMAN)

We have heard the arguments of the learned counsel
for both the parties and gone through the documents.

In this application, the applicant who has been working as Head Clerk is aggrieved by her non-selection for the post of Chief Clerk in the selection held in 1988.

The selection is made on the basis of suitability-cum-seniority. The suitability is assessed on the basis of 35 marks allotted for written test and those who get 60% marks in the written test are called for interview.

Additionally ~~for which~~ 15 marks are allotted for senior persons who do not get 60% in the written test ^{and} notional marks are allotted for seniority upto 15 and only those who obtain 30 marks and above on the basis of written test and seniority are called for interview. The contention of the learned counsel for the applicant is that ^{in 1987} the applicant had qualified in the written test and ^{was} called for interview and was included in the panel, but could not be promoted because of shortage of vacancies in 1987. In ^{the} 1988 test, she was not even called for interview and she has a suspicion that ^{he} she was not given proper marks for his written test and seniority. She has not alleged any malafides or vindictiveness on the part of those who are associated with the selection process.

2. Ordinarily, this Tribunal is not expected to go into the reassessment of the candidates. However, in order to reassure ourselves, we went through the ^{answer} ~~necessary~~ papers of the applicant which were produced by the learned counsel for the respondents. We are satisfied that all the answers, both in the narrative papers as well as in the objective paper had been marked and the totalling was correct. The applicant was given 15 marks in the written test and 13 marks for the seniority which the applicant ^{himself} ~~himself~~ had claimed. The total being 28 marks, she fell short of 30 marks which she should have ~~been~~ obtained to qualify for being interviewed. We allowed ~~the~~ the learned counsel for the applicant to go through ~~the~~ the answer papers of the applicant and he was satisfied that all the answers were marked and the totalling was correct.

3. In the circumstances, we see no merit in the application and dismiss the same without costs.

O R D E R

Shri S.P.Mukherji, Vice Chairman

In this review application the original applicant has prayed that the order dated 7.12.89
passed in OA. 488/89 should be reviewed on the ground that her failure to qualify for interview ⁱⁿ ~~and~~ the selection test was due to the fact that she was not posted in the Works Branch where she ^{had originally been} ~~was~~ appointed.

She was, on the other hand, deputed to General Branch as a result of which she could not do well in the written examination where the questions related to the Works Branch. She failed to qualify for viva-voce as she ~~has~~ got 28 instead of 30 marks in the written test. We ^{are} afraid this cannot be considered to be a valid ground for review of our judgement as no error apparent on the face of record or new material has been brought out in the review application. She did not adduce any ground relating to her posting in the original application. In the circumstances, I feel that the review application should be rejected by circulation and there is no need to give a notice to the original respondents. If Hon'ble Member agrees, such an order will be pronounced in the Open Court.
