Applicant a female casual employee under respondents, claims maternity leave by reason of A-5. Pleadings on facts necessary to adjudicate on the questions raised, are not before us. Learned Counsel for applicant sought leave, and well advisedly too, to withdraw the application with freedom to move the competent authority in the first instance and seek redressal. With freedom to do so, we grant leave and dismiss the application as withdrawn. We express appreciation of the help rendered by Mr.PC Sebastian who appeared as Amicus Curiae and assisted the Tribunal. No costs. .
