The applications having been heard on 18th June 1996,
the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

O R D E R

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR(J), VICE CHAIRMAN

Applicants herein were discharged from the Army and later appointed as Extra Departmental Branch Post Masters. Their complaint is that they were paid neither relief on pension, nor dearness allowance on salary (called allowance in the case of Extra Departmental Agents). Some of them were getting relief on pension and some of them opted for dearness allowance. Apparently, one cannot have both, and after the Supreme Court decision in Union of India and others Vs. G. Vasudevan Pillay and others (1995 2 SCC 32) relief on pension is not admissible. Dearness allowance is a matter of entitlement. We declare that in the case of Extra Departmental Agents who are re-employed military pensioners, dearness allowance on salary (called basic allowance) will be admissible while relief on military pension will not be admissible. Payments will accordingly be made every month, and arrears will be paid within three months from today.

2. Applications are disposed of as aforesaid.

Parties will suffer their costs.

Tuesday this the 18th day of June 1996.
