The application having been heard on 9.10.2001, the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following :-

ORDER

HON'BLE SHRI A.V. HARIDASAN, VICE CHAIRMAN

The Applicant being successful in the selection process for recruitment to the post of Probationary Assistant Station Master was selected for appointment as seen from order A4 dated 8.1.1996. However, when he reported for medical examination, he was found medically unfit on account of visual disability. Aggrieved by that decision, the applicant took the matter before higher authorities. Though he was subjected to re-medical examination again in the year 1996, he was not given appointment while persons similarly selected had already been appointed. Aggrieved by the fact that though a 2nd medical examination was held by the very same Doctor who had examined him earlier and found him unfit and not for appointing him, the applicant submitted a representation to the Hon'ble Minister of State for Railways in 1996 with copies to the General Manager and Chief Personnel Officer, Southern Railway, Chennai. The applicant was hopefully awaited a favourable order of appointment as Probationary Assistant Station Master, but he did not get any such order. Alleging that the applicant met officers personally and got assurance from them that his case might be considered for appointment, the applicant has filed this application on 1.6.2001 for a direction to respondents 1 to 3 to appoint the applicant as Probationary Assistant Station Master and in the alternate direct them to appoint him as envisaged in Annexure A12.

2. The applicant has filed MA 673/2001 to condone the delay in filing the OA. The respondents filed a reply statement to the MA stating that there is no reason at all for condonation of delay.

3. After a scrutiny of all the materials placed on record and considering the facts stated in the MA and reply statement, we do not find any good and sufficient reason to condone delay of five years in filing the application. The application is time barred under Section 21 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985. The applicant failed to file the application within the time prescribed under Section 21 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985.

4. Now the question is whether there is any valid reason for condonation of delay in filing the application. Apart from stating that the applicant has made several representations, and was awaiting a favourable reply, no other valid reason why the applicant could not file the OA in time has been stated. It is well settled by now that repeated unsuccessful representations would not revive the time barred cause of action (See AIR 1990 SC 10 - S.S. Rathore Vs State of Madhya Pradesh). We therefore find no reason to condone the delay. Accordingly the MA 673/2001 is dismissed.

5. As the MA for condonation of delay is dismissed, the OA which is time barred is rejected under Section 19(3) of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985.

Dated the 9th October, 2001.
