O.A. No.53 of 1997.

Wednesday this the 3rd day of June 1998.

CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. P.V. VENKATAKRISHNAN, ADMINISTRATIVE MEMBER

S. Selvaraj,
Part time casual labourer
(Rest house attendant)
Railway Mail Service Rest House, Shencottaih. (residing at 9/222, Shencottaih.)

.. Applicant

(By Advocate Shri M.R. Rajendran Nair)

Vs.

The Senior Superintendent of Post Offices, Railway Mail Service 'TV' Division, Trivandrum.

.. Respondent

(By Advocate Shri Varghese P. Thomas, ACGSC)

The application having been heard on 3rd June 1998, the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

O R D E R

Applicant is a Part time casual labourer in the Railway Mail Service (RMS for short) Rest House at Shencottaih. Relying on Tribunal's decisions such as O.A. 348/96, applicant contends that the part time service rendered by him is liable to be counted for temporary status. Respondent, however, contends that the scheme does not provide for temporary status for Part time casual labourers.

2. It is agreed on both sides that the Supreme Court in Secretary, Ministry of Communications and others Vs.

Sakkubai and another (Civil Appeal Nos. 360-361 of 1994)

has laid down that Part time casual service does not entitle a casual labourer to get the benefit of the scheme for temporary status.

3. In view of the decision of the Supreme Court, the application is only to be dismissed. However, learned counsel for the applicant prays that the applicant may be permitted to take up his claim with the competent authorities. He may do so within one month from today.

If such a representation is made by the applicant,
the competent authority shall consider it and pass appropriate orders within three months of its receipt.

4. Application is disposed of as aforesaid. No costs.

Dated 3rd June 1998.
