Applicant challenges Annexure A2 Appellate Order on the ground that the order does not reveal application of mind, to the order of the Disciplinary Authority. It is admitted by counsel for applicant that only the question of punishment was urged before the Appellate Authority.

24. Applicant can move the competent authority under Rule 29 of the Central Civil Services (Classification, Control & Appeal) Rules. He may do so within a period of six weeks from today, raising such contentions as he is advised to. Revisional authority shall examine such contentions, and pass a speaking order, particularly since there
