JUDGEMENT

(Hon'ble Shri AV Haridasan, J.M.)

When the case was taken up for final hearing today, the learned counsel on either side agreed that the application may be closed <sup>at the stage of admission</sup> with the direction to the respondents to consider the posting of the applicant to any office in or around Palghat so that the applicant and his wife can reside together. In view of the above submission, we close this application with the direction to the second respondent to consider the applicant for a posting to any one of the offices in or around Palghat Town in the next arising vacancy. There is no order as to costs.
