O R D E R

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR(J), VICE CHAIRMAN.

Applicant challenges Annexure.A1 telegram, by which he was transferred from Agathi Island to Kadamath Island. Applicant submits that a telegraphic transfer is something unusual and that it smacks of malafides. A telegraphic transfer, is something out of the ordinary.

2. But, Standing Counsel submits that this transfer was ordered to complete an urgent work namely electrification of the Nehru College, in the Kadamath Island. If that be so, it is only an adhoc transfer and we see no justification to interfere with it. If after completion of that work, applicant is sought to be transferred to a station other than Agathi, he will be free to bring his grievances to the competent authority.

3. Application is disposed of as aforesaid. No costs.

Dated the 27th April, 1994.
