O R D E R

HON'BLE MR. A. V. HARIDASAN, VICE CHAIRMAN

The grievance of the applicant who retired as Junior Authorised Representative in the Income-tax Appellate Tribunal, Cochin Bench, Cochin, is that the respondents have refused to fix his pension and pensionary benefits in accordance with the pay revised pursuant to the orders of the Tribunal in O.A. 1426/95. Therefore, the applicant has filed this application for following reliefs:

- " i) To direct the respondents in the application to issue the consequential orders enhancing the basic pension, residual pension, family pension at normal rate of the applicant on the last pay arrived at on the basis of the refixation of pay made by the first respondent in giving effect to the order dated 29.2.96 of this Hon'ble Tribunal in O.A. 1426/95 and also to pay the arrears of pension, gratuity and commutation of pension due to the applicant consequent on the above said re-fixation of pay within such time as this Hon'ble Tribunal considers fit.

ii) To direct the Respondents to pay the applicant interest and costs at the rate this Hon'ble Tribunal may fix.

iii) To pass such other order as this Hon'ble Tribunal deems fit and proper on the facts and circumstances of the case."

2. When the application came up for hearing, the ACGSC Shri James Kurian, appearing for the respondents states that the respondents do not wish to contest the application and that they would revise the applicant's pension ^{and} make available to him whatever is due without much delay.

3. In the light of the above submission by the learned counsel for the respondents, we allow the application and direct the respondents to re-fix the pension and other pensionary benefits of the applicant on the basis of the orders of the respondent pursuant to the orders of the Tribunal in O.A. 1426/95 and make available to the applicant the benefits flowing therefrom, within a period of two months from the date of communication of this order. No costs.

Dated the 19th June, 1997.
