The matter relates to the deduction of Profession
Tax which has been levied by the Karnataka State Government.
Neither the applicants/^{nor} their counsel is present today.
Respondents' counsel argued this case to the extent that in this matter it is only the Kerala High Court has to pass any order with regard to the non-collection of the Profession tax is concerned. However, since none of the applicants nor their counsel are present today, the application is dismissed for default. No costs.
