The application having been heard on 29th April, 1997 the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following.

O R D E R

HON'BLE MR. A.V. HARIDASAN, VICE CHAIRMAN

The grievance of the applicants 4 in number is that though they have been working for a long time and have acquired temporary status in skilled category, the respondents without absorbing them in the respective grades on the vacancies in the quota ear-marked for such absorption, have absorbed them as Gangman by the order dated 24.3.97. The applicants have, therefore, filed this application for quashing Annexure A4 to the extent, it affects the applicants, and for a direction to respondents to consider the applicants for absorption in the relevant grade towards the vacancies ear-marked for absorption of skilled Casual Labour which arose after 1990.

2. When the application came up for admission, learned counsel for respondents states that the applicants have been empanelled for regular absorption as Gangman with a view to decasualise them as they could not be absorbed in the grade in which they were working so far. The counsel states that if the applicants have any objection for such absorption the respondents have no objection to recalling the order to the extent, it affects them and that they would allow the applicants to continue as skilled casual labourer with the risk of retrenchment and to be absorbed in their grade in their turn.

3. Learned counsel for applicants states that the applicants are satisfied if the directions as agreed to by the counsel for respondents are given. In the result, the application is disposed of with a direction to respondents not to give effect to the Annexure A4 order to the extent, it affects the applicants and to allow them to continue as skilled casual labour with the risk of retrenchment and to consider their absorption in their relevant grades in their turn in the quota reserved for absorption of skilled casual labour directly in skilled grade.

The application is disposed of as above.

No costs.

Dated the 29th April 1997.
