The application having been heard on 11.6.98, the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

O R D E R

HON'BLE MR. A.V. HARIDASAN, VICE CHAIRMAN

Applicant who claims to have been engaged in the Construction Organisation initially in the year 1968 and thereafter for a short time in the year 1984 is aggrieved that while persons who are having lesser length of casual service than her have been empanelled, her claim for empanelment and re-engagement has not been considered by the respondents. The representation submitted by the applicant in that behalf dated 16.5.97 (A5) to the Divisional Railway Manager is still not disposed of. Therefore, the applicant has filed this application for a direction to the respondents to consider the representation (A5) and to reengage and absorb him in a Group 'D' post.

2. When the application came up for hearing today, learned counsel on either side agree that the application may be disposed of directing the second respondent to consider the representation submitted by the applicant (A5) and to give the applicant an appropriate order within a period of two months.

3. In the result, the application is disposed of directing the second respondent to consider and dispose of the representation (A5) by giving the applicant an appropriate order within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. There is no order as to costs.

Dated the 11th June, 1998.
