Applicant challenges A-1 order transferring him from the Central Region to the Northern Region. This according to him, is violative of an order of the Director General of Posts governing the matter of transfer. We are not required to enforce instructions/ orders issued by the Director General. But the Director General can certainly do this, if his orders are not being followed by his subordinates.

2. Counsel for applicant submits that applicant may be permitted to make a representation before the Chief Post Master General. He may do so within three days from today and in that event, the Chief Post Master General will pass appropriate orders thereon within ten days of the date of receipt of the representation. The impugned order will be held in abeyance till then.
3. Standing counsel submits that he will forward a copy of the Original Application and a copy of this order to first respondent for necessary action. We record the submission.
4. Application is disposed of as aforesaid. No costs.
