ORDER

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR(J), VICE CHAIRMAN:

Applicants moved this Tribunal claiming the benefits granted to the applicants in O.A.434/89. Whether a person is similarly situated as another, is a question of fact. Relief cannot be granted on the basis of vague pleadings of similarity, stating that the applicant in a particular case is similarly situated as the applicants in another case. We frequently come across such cases. A fact adjudication must precede a decision. The competent authority must make a fact adjudication and ascertain whether applicants are similarly situated as the applicants in the case aforementioned, or whether there are any points of difference.

2. If the applicants are similarly situated, reliefs granted to the applicants in O.A.434/89 will be granted to applicants herein. A determination will be made by the competent authority within six months from today. Applicants will furnish details of their service to the competent authority within 15 days from today, failing which this order will stand recalled and the O.A. will stand dismissed. We alert respondents to adhere to the time schedule.

3. Application is allowed with the aforesaid directions. No costs.

Dated the 27th April,1994.
