JUDGEMENT

(Hon'ble Mr. S.P. Mukerji, Vice Chairman)

We have heard the learned counsel for all the parties in this application <sup>by</sup> ~~in~~ which the applicant has moved this <sup>Tribunal</sup> ~~application~~ again challenging the impugned order of transfer dated 14.2.92 at Annexure.A.3. In the application itself the applicant has conceded that she had challenged the same order in O.A. 378/92 which was dismissed by this Tribunal on 20.4.92, when the applicant's counsel failed to appear. The learned counsel for Respondent No.2 indicated that the dismissal was on merit, even though the applicant's counsel was not present. In any case, this application which is against Annexure.A.3 order is barred by the principle of res judicata. In case the applicant feels aggrieved by the dismissal of O.A.378/92 it <sup>is</sup> ~~was~~ open to her to seek a review in accordance with law or file an appeal against that order. The learned counsel for the applicant <sup>(the applicant)</sup> stated that she may be allowed to occupy the quarters allotted to SPM, Thevara till the end of June as her children are appearing in the examination at present. The learned counsel for respondents 1&3 indicated that there will be no objection <sup>of</sup> ~~of~~ the applicant being allowed to retain the quarters at Thevara till the end of June 1992. Be that as it may, the application <sup>has</sup> ~~has~~ to be dismissed and we do so. We however, make it clear that this will not preclude the applicant from making a representation <sup>nor</sup> ~~to~~ Respondents 1&3 <sup>from</sup> ~~for~~ allowing her to occupy the residential quarters at Thevara till the end of June, 1992. There will be no order as to costs.
