(By Advocate Shri P.Haridas)

The application having been heard on 4th February 2002
the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

O R D E R

HON'BLE MR.A.V.HARIDASAN, VICE CHAIRMAN

The applicant, an Ex-Senior Gangman filed this application seeking the following reliefs:

- "a) Call for the records leading to the issue of Annexure A5 and A6 and quash the same.
- b) Declare that the termination of the applicant from services in terms of Annexure A5 and A6 is arbitrary, discriminatory and unconstitutional and direct the respondents accordingly.
- c) Direct the respondents to reinstate the applicant forthwith duly providing him alternative appointment as provided under law with consequential benefits.

d) Pass such other orders or direction as deemed just, fit and necessary in the facts and circumstances of the case."

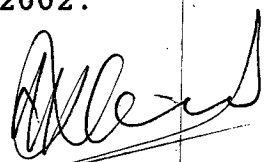

2. The respondents in their reply statement have stated that pursuant to the directions contained in the order of the Tribunal in O.A.982/99, the applicant has been reinstated in service as per memorandum dated 2.3.2000 and has been granted Extra Ordinary Leave pending alternative appointment in a suitable post. Taking note of the above statement in the reply statement, the learned counsel of the applicant states that the application may be disposed of giving liberty to the applicant to seek appropriate remedy in accordance with law, if he is aggrieved by the order regarding regularisation of the period and the alternate employment offered. Learned counsel of the respondents have no objection in the application being disposed of in such a manner.

3. Accordingly, the application is disposed of taking note of the fact that the applicant has been reinstated in service by order dated 2.3.2000 and leaving the applicant to seek appropriate relief, in case he is not satisfied by the method of regularisation of his period pending alternate employment and the decision regarding alternate post. There is no order as to costs.

Dated the 4th February, 2002.
