ORDER

A.V.HARIDASAN, VICE CHAIRMAN:

Learned counsel for the applicant states that in view of the decision in O.A.811/96, the applicant being a pre 1981 open line casual labourer is entitled to preferential treatment in the matter of re-engagement. The applicant has not made any representation after the disposal of O.A.811/96.

Learned counsel for the respondents states that if the applicant makes a representation inviting attention of the respondents to the relevant ruling, the respondents would consider the representation and take a decision within a short time.

2. In the light of what is stated above, the application is admitted and disposed of with the direction to applicant to make a consolidated representation projecting her grievances with special mention to the directions of the Tribunal in O.A.811/96 within a period of fifteen days from today and with a direction to the second respondent that if such a representation is received from the applicant in the aforesaid period, the same shall be considered in the light of the relevant rulings and instructions and a speaking order shall be communicated to the applicant within a period of two months from the date of receipt of the representation. No costs.

Dated the 28th January, 1997.
