Applicants seek a direction, inter-alia, to conduct a "further typewriting test to applicants who pass in the written examination".

2. We are unable to find the source of any legal right in the applicants, to get a direction as prayed for. How a test should be conducted, and when a test should be conducted, are matters essentially for the administrative authority to decide. Courts or Tribunals come into the picture only if there is an infraction of law or if there are other vices known to law, tainting the procedure. That apart, we find that applicants have made A-4 and A-5 representations to second respondent Chief Passport Officer voicing their grievances. It is for second respondent to consider A-4 and A-5 representations and pass orders thereon, and that he will do within two months from today.

3. The application is disposed of as aforesaid. No costs.
