ORDER.

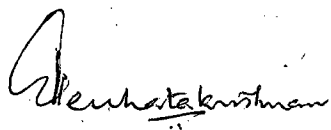

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR(J),VICE CHAIRMAN:

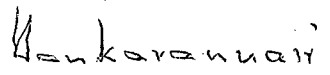

Applicants who are Superintendents of Central Excise challenge the ranking assigned to them, in the Seniority List of Inspectors(Annexure.AI). Other ancillary reliefs also are sought.

2. At the time when the application was filed, there was no Seniority List of Superintendents and there was only a Seniority List of Inspectors. So claims and controversies were based on it. Now that list has lost its relevance for Superintendents, in the sense that there is a Seniority List of Superintendents (Annexure.A15). May be Annexure.A1 may have a bearing on Annexure.A15. May be not.

3. If any party has any grievance regarding the ranking of Superintendents in Annexure.A15, they may raise their objection before the appropriate authority. We consider it unnecessary to examine the propriety of the placement of applicants vis-a-vis party respondents in Annexure.AI Seniority List. For that reason, we dispose of the application as infructuous. Parties will suffer their costs.

Dated the 5th April, 1994.
