The application having been heard on 25th June, 2002
the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

O R D E R

HON'BLE MR.A.V.HARIDASAN, VICE CHAIRMAN

The applicant, a native of Kadamath Island in Lakshadweep was recruited as Store Assistant under the 2nd respondent in the year 1988 from Kavarathi and he was initially posted at Rangath in Andaman Island. Presently he is posted as Store Clerk in Lakshadweep Island at Amini. His grievance is that he is being denied the Island Special Duty Allowances. Therefore, he has filed this application for the following reliefs:

1. To declare that the applicant is an employee under Lakshadweep Harbour Works is entitled to get Island Special (Duty) Allowances (ISDA) at the rate stipulated by the Vth Central Pay Commission forthwith.

- 2 To declare that the Petitioner is similarly placed as beneficiaries in Annexure A-7 order and an employee of the Andaman Lakshadweep Harbour Works who is posted in the Islands of Lakshadweep with the liability of All India transfer.
3. To direct the respondents to continue to pay the Island Special (Duty) Allowances granted under Island Special (Duty) Allowances as per Office Memorandum No.20022/288-E.II(B) dated 24.5.1989 to petitioner. To call for the records leading to Annexure A-8 proceedings dated 4.7.2000 and set aside the same in so far as it contain the clause namely "employees who were recruited from two zones that is Andaman and Nicobar Islands and Lakshadweep are not entitled for payment of Island Special (Duty) Allowances/Island Special allowances."
4. Any other appropriate order or direction as this Hon'ble Tribunal may deem fit in the interest of justice."

2. We have heard the learned counsel of the applicant Shri Mohammed Kunhi, Shri C.Rajendran, SCGSC for the 1st respondent and Shri S.Radhakrishnan appearing for the respondents 2 and 3. Counsel of the respondents state that, it has been held by the Tribunal in its order in O.A.1282/2000, that a native of the Lakshadweep is not entitled to Island Special Duty Allowance when posted in any of the Islands in Lakshadweep and that the Island Special Duty Allowance would be due only to the mainlanders while posted in the Island and that the decision of the Tribunal has been upheld by the Hon'ble High Court of Kerala in O.P.No.3805/2002.

3. We have perused the order of this Tribunal in O.A.1282/2000 as also the order in O.P.3805/2002 of the Hon'ble High Court of Kerala. The issue involved in this case was gone into in detail by the Tribunal in its order and it was held that a native of the Lakshadweep when posted in any one of the Islands of Lakshadweep, is not entitled to the Island Special Duty Allowance. <sup>Same</sup> That case also was filed by the employees of the
