of Information & Broadcasting, Government of India, New Delhi, the applicant submitted Annexure A4 representation dated 31.8.2000 and followed by another representation dated 1.2.2002, but without any response. Under these circumstances, the applicant has filed this application for a declaration that the applicant is entitled to get his pensionary benefits revised as per Annexure A3 and for a direction to the 1st respondent to revise the pensionary benefits of the applicant as per Annexure A3 and cause the payment of arrears with interest immediately.

2. When the application came up for hearing on admission, Shri. C. Rajendran, SCGSC took notice on behalf respondents. The counsel on either side agree that the matter can be disposed of by directing the 1st respondent to consider the Annexure A4 and A5 representations of the applicant in the light of the instructions contained in Annexure A3 and other relevant orders and instructions and to give an appropriate reply within a reasonable time and if on such consideration, the applicant is found to be eligible for revised pension and monetary benefits, to make available to him the benefits without any further delay.

3. In the light of the above submission made by the counsel on either side, the application is disposed of directing the 1st respondent to consider Annexure A4 and A5 representations of the applicant in the light of instructions contained in Annexure A3, especially para 3 (A) and (B) and also any other relevant rules or instructions and to give the applicant an appropriate reply within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, and that if on such consideration, the
