Applicants who are Cooks and Assistant Cooks under the Railways, seek overtime payments. According to them, their working hours are very long and for work done in excess of 96 hours in a fortnight, they should be paid overtime wages. We are not sure whether rigid working hours would be practicable in all types of employment, having regard to the nature of work. In some cases there may be long spells of free time between working hours - whether that should be reckoned as working time, is a question that must be considered by the competent authority with reference to the special facts of the case. We find that applicants have made A-5 representation seeking reliefs, and that is pending consideration before third respondent. It is now stated by Counsel for applicants that third respondent Divisional Railway Manager is not competent to take a decision; and that, only second respondent General Manager can take a decision in the matter. Applicants may make a representation before second respondent General Manager, and second respondent will pass appropriate orders on the representation within four months of the date of receipt of the representation.

2. Application is disposed of as aforesaid. No costs.
