Applicant seeks to quash Annexure A6 proceedings of Chief General Manager, Telecom. He took an examination for promotion from the post of Lineman to the post of Telephone Operator/Telecom Assistant. He failed in the examination. Upon that, he came to this Tribunal. By judgement in OA 179/92, the Tribunal directed Respondent Chief General Manager to verify the answer book. Adhering to the direction, he verified the answer book, and issued Annexure A6 order stating that there are no grounds to vary the marks. At the time of arguments, learned counsel for applicant made a hint that the General Manager could not have verified the answer book, as he was on leave during the material period. We then directed the Standing Counsel to ascertain when the Chief General Manager verified the answer book. He submits that it was done on 18.12.1992. He has also produced the minutes before us. We find that the Chief General Manager has examined the answer book in great detail in obedience to the directions of this Tribunal. The allegation made by applicant are unjustified, not to say irresponsible. To an extent, every system must work on trust.

2. Application is without merit and we dismiss the same with costs which we fix at Rs.100.00 (Rupees One Hundred Only).
