O R D E R

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR(J), VICE CHAIRMAN

Applicants herein seek a declaration that the casual service rendered by them prior to regularisation, or part of it, is liable to be reckoned as qualifying service for pension. Several such claims have come before us. The question is one of all India importance with financial implications. In view of the importance of the matter, both from the administrative and human angle, we feel that the Railway Board should take a decision in the matter. In several cases we had asked the Railway Board to consider similar matters. Applicants may make a representation before the Chairman, Railway Board and a speaking order will be passed on the representations within six months of the date of receipt of the representations.

2. These applications are disposed of with the aforesaid direction. Parties will suffer their costs.

Dated, the 13th day of March, 1996.
