pay in terms of the Judgment of the Apex Court in Director General (Posts) V. B.Ravindran and another (Civil Appeal Nos.4077-78/92 decided on 8.11.96)although he made a representation in that behalf on 28.5.2001 (A7). Therefore, the applicant has filed this application for a declaration that he is entitled to get the benefit of Annexure.A judgment and for a direction to the respondents to regulate his pay accordingly and in the alternative for a direction to the second respondent to consider and pass orders on Annexure.A7 representation.

2. When the application came up for admission, learned counsel for the applicant states that Annexure.A7 representation is short of the factual backdrop and that the applicant may be permitted to make a more consolidated representation which the second respondent may be directed to consider and dispose of.

3. Learned counsel for respondents Shri C.Rajendran, SCGSC stated that there is no objection in the application being disposed of as suggested.

4. In the light of what is stated above, the applicant is permitted to make a detailed representation to the second respondent seeking extension of the benefit of the judgment of the Apex Court (A.1) setting out the details of his service etc. within a period of three weeks from today and the second respondent is directed to consider the representation in accordance with the rules,
